

Important information for exhibitors

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic situation the Bundessiegerzuchtschau can't be planned as usually. At present, no one can know how the situation will be in September 2021, also, when we meanwhile have vaccines and we can look ahead with a little more optimism. However, today can't be prognosticated if our event can be organized in the usual frame.

At present, SV is planning with different scenarios and, naturally, prefers the version with spectators considering infection protection measures and social distancing rules. The SV board will make the final decision about the holding of the event on June 1, 2021; on the one hand based on the entries which will be received until then, on the other hand the trend of the COVID-19 situation can better be estimated. Naturally, also after this deadline a cancellation through the authorities is threatening so that, at present, we can't say for sure if the event will take place. We will constantly keep you informed.

In order to inform you previously we compiled the most important of the planned changes. Those changes are necessary to receive a license for the event with infection protection measures and to guarantee the maximum security for you as participant or spectator but also for the staff and the volunteers. In addition, in the case of an infection, the contact tracing must be assured.

Those are the most important changes:

- Conversion of the complete registration process including booking of starting time solely to online processing. In order to avoid contacts as far as possible at the event 2021 there will be no registration counter, also a short-time booking of a starting time on-site is not possible. Any clearance on-site is not possible.
- Separation of the registration process from the ticket system
- Purchasing of tickets with traceability as well as the booking of parking places is handled through an external ticket system
- Entry confirmations, parking tickets and tickets will only be sent digital with QR code. Only one-time starting vests will be handed out
- Staying on the grandstand is only possible with social distancing rules, if required, face masks also when moving inside the event location if this is instructed from the authorities.
- All presentations beside the judgment of the dogs in show stance will take place in the main stadium.
- Should callers be permitted, they may only stay on an assigned place on an intended area on the stand.
- The decision if and, when yes, in which form a competition of the progeny groups can be held can be made at the earliest in June 2021 when the received entries are checked and the progeny groups are determined.

What does this mean for you?

An event with infection protection conditions requires a fairly long-term planning then it has so far been usual. Also on-site the contacts have to be limited to an absolute minimum. Therefore, the following measures are necessary:

Bringing forward

The entry fee doesn't include a ticket, the entry confirmation entitles only the entry to the inside stadium during the presentation of the concerned dog through the concerned dog handler.
